Featuring: Sonar – An inspiring Catholic band from the Twin Cities, Sonar enters its 20th year of making vibrant, vocally driven music. Sonar has played at hundreds of events across the country. Running a spectrum from edgy electric sets to haunting vocal acoustics, Sonar inspires, challenges and energizes listeners of all ages!

Reaching Out to Christ's Kingdom (the ROCK) is a series of events hosted by Fr. Jared Johnson and the Religious Studies Department at St. Mary's Central High School (SMCHS). ROCK events occur four times a year and they are open to all students grades 9-12. Each event consistently draws 200-300 students! These events include dynamic speakers, adoration, music, confessions, food, prizes, and ultimate activities. You and your youth group will not want to miss the ROCK this year!

The date is October 11th, theme is "Rocktober".

Dress as your favorite punk rockers. $50 gift card to Scheel's. Bonfire after with s'mores.

Note: All youth must be affiliated with a parish or school group. A signed parent consent/wavier form is required.
